

Dear Campers and Families,

Greetings from the Texas Christian University Campus! We are looking forward to this summer's band camp, TCU's Music & Leadership Experience, June 15-18, and we hope you are too! This packet contains all of the information necessary for your participation and stay at TCU.

Please check the TCU Band website regularly for updates.

Important forms and information that you need to bring or download include:

- TCU Medical Release Form (Please bring this with all signatures to registration check-in)
- TCU Consent Form (Please bring this with all signatures to registration check-in)
- TCU Photographic Release Form

These forms are required: you can bring them to camp or send by e-mail to band@tcu.edu.

- TCU_Campus Map-see page 5.

If your camper requires prescription medication, our camp nurse requests that you fill out the Schedule Medication Administration Form.

If your camper may need over the counter medication at camp, our camp nurse requests that you fill out the OTC Medication Administration Form.

Please make sure you bring these completed forms to the registration check-in– see map on page 5. We cannot host students who do not have both agreements completed and turned in and tuition paid by check-in time.

Please go online and pay the entirety of your registration fee prior to the camp if you haven't already completed payment. (Payment link) We will not accept cash payment on the day of registration.

Have a safe and relaxing summer, and we will see you when the camp starts.

Cordially,

Brian Youngblood, Camp Director
Bobby Francis, Camp Artistic Director
Sharie Owens, Camp Administrative Director

Meals

Commuter students are provided all meals beginning Monday lunch through Thursday dinner (including Tuesday through Thursday breakfast and lunch). Students may NOT leave the campus at any time during the camp.

Daily Schedule

All students will be provided a detailed camp schedule on Sunday check-in.

Our camp day lasts from 7:30am-6:15pm. On Monday, the check-in for commuters will begin at 10:00am (see schedule on p. 3) with camp beginning at 11:15am. Music track students will have masterclasses and band rehearsals while the drum majors and color guard students will have their first session.

Drum Major track students will participate in leadership sessions throughout the day when the remaining students are attending music-related program activities. They will join the full camp during all full camp meetings and meals. All students will participate in the full camp leadership sessions.

Color Guard students will participate in color guard and movement sessions when the remaining students are attending music-related program activities. They will join the full camp during all camp meetings and meals. All students will participate in the full camp leadership sessions.

Students should be dropped off in the morning by 7:00-7:15am at Foster Hall Tuesday-Thursday shown on the map-see page 5. Campers will need to be picked-up at Foster Hall by 6:15pm Monday-Wednesday. TCU Interns will be there to assist with student pick-up. We ask that this be done as a safety precaution to ensure that each child goes home with their respective parent/guardian/designee. Students will be supervised at this time by camp interns, so it is imperative they be picked up on time so our camp interns may resume their scheduled evening duties.

Parking will be provided for commuters who drive themselves to camp.

Camp Concert, Drum Major and Color Guard Presentation

The closing concert will be live in the Van Cliburn Concert Hall at TCU located in the TCU Music Center at 6:30pm. Campers are dismissed after the concert.

Tuesday, June 16 -Wednesday, June 17) Procedures

Commuters will need to arrive no later than 7:30am and check-in with the Intern Foster Hall.

All High School campers will have breakfast and then will begin the outdoor full camp leadership session. The camp will begin at 8:30am after breakfast. Commuter students will need to be picked up at Foster Hall at 6:15pm.

LAST Class Day (Thursday, June 18) Procedures

Commuters will need to arrive no later than 7:30am and check-in with the intern in the Foster Hall. All campers will need to wear their camp t-shirt that they will receive on Wednesday. They will need to bring their concert attire/Drum Major/Color Guard attire with them at this time, as they will not have a chance to go home before their final concert at 6:30pm that evening. Students will be notified where to store their concert clothes. Students will then proceed to breakfast and the morning leadership session.

CAMP CONCERT

Thursday Camp Concert, Drum Major and Color Guard Presentation

The closing concert will begin at 6:30pm in the Van Cliburn Concert Hall at the TCU Music Center. Please see map locations to enter the building as we have several other groups with performances that evening. The concert typically last 90 minutes. Drum Majors and Color Guard will also have a presentation during the concert and we encourage all students to remain for the full event. The concert will also be live streamed on the TCU School of Music Youtube Channel.

Concert Attire

The dress for the final concert on Thursday evening for all campers will nice modest-length shorts or pants/nice jeans and their band camp t-shirt (provided).

WHAT TO BRING

What to Bring to Rehearsal each day

- Concert Instrument - (not required for DM or Color Guard Track)- Please do not bring a marching instrument
- Percussionists need to bring personal standard sticks and mallets
- Instrument accessories (valve oil, mutes, reeds, etc.)
- Folding wire music stand (OPTIONAL for all Music track students)
- Leadership folder provided at all leadership sessions.
- Pencil
- Color Guard-Color guard campers will need to bring their own flag and rifle (optional).

Daily Attire

Students are expected to wear appropriate clothing to camp each day. Please ensure that all clothing is of modest length and cover, and that no questionable material is visible (this includes obscene language/images, adult themes including alcohol and explicit innuendo).

Be sure to bring:

- Loose fitting comfortable clothing suitable for outdoor marching rehearsals
- Tennis Shoes for marching (no flip flops, etc.)
- Your own water bottle
- Hat
- Sunscreen & bug spray
- Optional Ear Plugs
- Optional Umbrella or poncho (in case of rain)

Instrument Storage

Secured storage for large instruments (i.e., tuba, euphonium, bari sax) will be designated in the TCU Music Center during camp.

CONTACTING YOUR STUDENT DURING CAMP

From 7:30pm-8:00pm, you may contact your student through the Band Office at 817-257-7640. If there is an emergency after the camp day is ended, you may contact the Camp Director – Brian Youngblood at 817-680-7112.

Cell phone policy

Students are welcome to bring cell phones to camp; however, they must be turned off during all rehearsals, camp activities, and performances. We encourage parents to limit communication with their child during the 7:30am-5:00pm time frame to maximize their music instruction & leadership experience.

MUSIC TRACK ENSEMBLE AUDITIONS

This year, TCU Music & Leadership Experience will have on-line auditions. These auditions determine which of the two concert bands (High School Symphonic, High School Concert) the student will perform with during their stay at camp.

In order to complete your audition for the TCU Summer Band Camp, you will find your music via the following link. You need to record your video, upload it to Youtube via an UNLISTED youtube link (not public or private), and submit the link at the bottom of this form. Please have this process complete by June 5. Please e-mail band@tcu.edu with any questions.

Drum Major and Color Guard track students will not need to complete the audition process
