

LEAD ON,[®] CREATIVELY.

Located in the heart of North Texas' vibrant music scene, the award-winning TCU SCHOOL OF MUSIC blends artistic and academic excellence with personalized mentorship. You'll graduate prepared to teach, perform, research, compose and advocate — ready to make a lasting impact in the performing arts.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES OFFERED

WORLD-CLASS FACILITIES TO LEARN, REHEARSE & PERFORM

You'll train with renowned faculty to develop your craft and prepare for a successful career in the arts.

MEGAN & VICTOR BOSCHINI MUSIC CENTER

- Home to the 717-seat Van Cliburn Concert Hall at TCU
- State-of-the-art rehearsal spaces and learning resources
- Supports band, orchestra and percussion programs
- Classrooms, studios and practice rooms
- Percussion Suite

MARY D. & F. HOWARD WALSH CENTER FOR PERFORMING ARTS

- Classrooms, studios and practice rooms
- Multi-use performance venues

SECRET-WIBLE BUILDING

Opera rehearsal and performance venue

ED LANDRETH HALL

The comprehensive renovation of Ed Landreth Hall will establish a world-class creative center featuring state-of-the-art performance and rehearsal spaces, classrooms and studios, enhancing the award-winning School of Music, Department of Theatre and the School for Classical & Contemporary Dance.

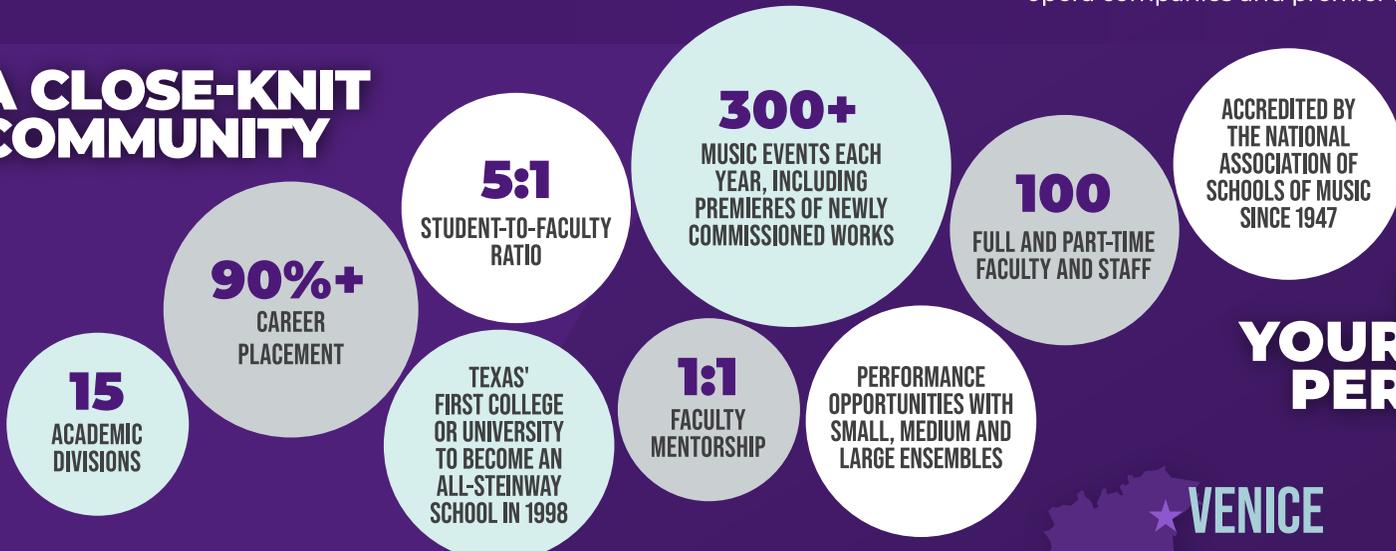

GRADUATE DEGREES OFFERED

WE'RE EDUCATING TOMORROW'S CREATIVE LEADERS

Our alumni excel globally as arts administrators, conductors, freelance musicians, public and private school educators, and professional performers in symphonies, opera companies and premier military ensembles.

A CLOSE-KNIT COMMUNITY

BROADEN YOUR ARTISTIC PERSPECTIVE

50+ STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS for undergraduate and graduate students

SCHOOL SPECIFIC OPPORTUNITIES in major performance hubs

FINANCIAL AID + SCHOLARSHIPS

A full range of competitive and merit-based scholarship awards for undergraduate students

Graduate students are eligible for full-tuition waivers

APPLY NOW