Workshop Faculty

JOE ECKERT is the first full-time Professor of Saxophone at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas and assumed additional duties as Director of Jazz Studies in 2011. From 1987-2007, he served as Professor of Saxophone at Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia. He retired in 2004 from a 20-year career as lead alto saxophonist/woodwind specialist and director for the USAF Band's Airmen of Note in Washington, D.C. Mr. Eckert received his B.M. from Baldwin-Wallace College in saxophone performance and went on to complete graduate and post-graduate studies at the University of North Texas. He has also held teaching positions at Southern Methodist University (1980-81) and West Virginia University (1981-84).

He continues to remain active as a performer, playing regularly with the Fort Worth Symphony and as a jazz soloist and recitalist nationally. He has served as an adjudicator and clinician at music festivals, high schools, and colleges nationally and internationally. Mr. Eckert is a Yamaha-Performing Artist/Clinician and a Legere Performing Artist. For more information, please refer to his website which is www.joeeckert.com
