

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC PRESENTS

TCU Summer String Workshop 2018

July 23-25

Registration info available at www.music.tcu.edu/smi.asp

TCU Summer String Workshop

Three exciting days of master classes and string chamber ensembles for high school and college students of violin, viola, cello and bass. Topics addressed will include ensemble skills, cueing, sight-reading, improvisation, and more. The workshop will conclude with a recital featuring all participants. Applicants must provide a letter of recommendation from their current teacher or orchestra director.

Commuter Fee $170

Daily lunch included

Resident Fee $285*

 Includes camp tuition, on-campus dorm residency, and all meals for the camp*

Auditor Fee $50

Daily lunch included

Workshop Faculty

ELISABETH ADKINS is Professor of Violin at Texas Christian University. Her richly varied career includes 31 years as the Associate Concertmaster of the National Symphony Orchestra at the Kennedy Center in Washington D.C., where she performed with the finest conductors and soloists in the world. She is equally at home in solo, orchestral, and chamber music. Ms. Adkins appeared as concerto soloist with the National Symphony, the Dallas Symphony, the Baltimore Symphony and the Seattle Symphony. She is well known for her work with young musicians in master classes, clinics, and workshops across the country, frequently focusing on string players preparing to enter the orchestral profession.

Questions?

Contact Elisabeth Adkins at 817-257-6628 or e-mail at e.adkins@tcu.edu

TCU School of Music: 817-257-7341

