Workshop Faculty

ANDREW CRISANTI is the retired principal clarinet of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra. He is a graduate of the New England Conservatory, where he was a student of Gino Ciuffi. He has performed at the Marlboro and Tanglewood music festivals and has served as principal clarinet with the Boston Opera, the Cincinnati, St. Louis, and Dallas Symphony Orchestras. He has been a faculty member at the New England Conservatory of Music, the University of Cincinnati, Washington University in St. Louis, and Southern Illinois University in Edwardsville.

GARY WHITMAN is Professor of Clarinet, Division Chair of Woodwinds at TCU, and Coordinator of the TCU Summer Clarinet Workshop. He holds the BME and MME degrees from the University of North Texas and is an active soloist, clinician, adjudicator, and orchestral performer. Mr. Whitman also serves as Bass Clarinet with the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra.

Italian clarinetist, IVAN PETRUZZIELLO, currently serves as assistant principal clarinet of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra and principal clarinet of the Corpus Christi Symphony. He has served on the clarinet faculty of several institutions in Colombia, such as the Universidad Central, Universidad del Valle, and the Universidad EAFIT. He has presented masterclasses in Colombia, Cuba, Italy, Peru and the United States. Mr. Petruzziello earned a BM in clarinet performance under the tutelage of Francesco Belli, a MM in chamber music, and an Artist Diploma Certificate at TCU.

Special lecture/demonstration by nationally recognized clarinet repair technician, MARK JACOBI.
