Workshop Faculty

SHAUNA THOMPSON is the Assistant Professor of Flute at Texas Christian University. She is currently coordinator of the Professional Flute Choir Competition for the National Flute Association, co-chair for the Texas Flute Society's annual festival, and coordinator of the Donna Marie Haire Competition. Dr. Thompson has been a featured performer at multiple National Flute Association conventions and recently gave the world premiere of Martin Blessinger's Rhapsody for Flute and Orchestra with the Texas Christian University Symphony Orchestra. She will perform Frank Ticheli's newest concerto this summer at the Texas Bandmaster's Association convention.

She holds a DMA and a MM in flute performance from the University of Cincinnati's College-Conservatory of Music and a Bachelor of Music from Texas Tech University where she studied with Lisa Garner Santa. Prior to joining the TCU faculty Dr. Thompson served as Consortium Instructor of Flute at the University of Evansville and principal flute with the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra.
