TCU Summer Percussion Camp

A 2-day* complete marching percussion training experience for all levels—college, high school and middle school (7th and 8th grade with at least one year of experience). Individual students will be grouped into like-ability levels to ensure maximum learning potential.

All camp activities will take place outside (weather permitting) and will be socially distanced to ensure student health and safety. Masks will be required at all times.

*Due to TCU's COVID-19 protocols, overnight accommodations are not available this summer

Participant Fee $125.00
T-Shirt and Daily Box Lunch Included
Time: 9am - 5pm

Camp Faculty

DR. BRIAN WEST is a Professor of Music and the Coordinator of Percussion at Texas Christian University. Under his direction, both the concert and marching programs at TCU have received international recognition. The TCU Percussion Orchestra won the 2019, 2015, 2011, 2008 and 2005 Percussive Arts Society International Percussion Ensemble Competitions, and the TCU Drumline won the 2012 and 2006 PAS Marching Percussion Festivals. Dr. West has conducted/performed in Hawaii, Italy, Spain, England, France, Australia, and Taiwan. Within the Percussive Arts Society he currently serves as the Chair of the Percussion Ensemble Committee. Dr. West is an active performer, clinician, composer/arranger, and adjudicator for a variety of percussive events. Dr. West is the Executive Producer of four CDs, is published by drop6 media, and works as a clinician/endorser for Yamaha, Innovative Percussion, Remo, Marimba One, and Sabian.

JEFFREY S. HODGE is a native of Mabank, TX. Jeff graduated with his Bachelor of Science in Music from Texas A&M University-Commerce in 2002, and his Master of Music in Percussion Performance from the University of Arkansas in 2007. Since 1995, Mr. Hodge has taught drumlines all across Texas and Arkansas. In 2006 he taught the University of Arkansas Drumline. Mr. Hodge is currently an Adjunct Instructor of Percussion at Texas Christian University, where he instructs the TCU Drumline.
