Selections from Messiah

Recitative accompagnato

Thus saith the Lord of Hosts: yet once, a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land, and I will shake all nations. And the desire of all nations shall come.

The Lord whom you seek shall suddenly come to his temple; ev'n the messenger of the Covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of Hosts.

Air

But who may abide the day of his coming and who shall stand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire!

* * *

Recitative

Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing.

Air

He shall feed His flock like a shepherd and He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom, and gently lead those that are with young.

Air

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion, O daughter of Jerusalem. Behold, thy King cometh unto thee.

He is the righteous Savior, and He shall speak peace unto the heathen; He shall speak peace.

Sonata à 5 (Concerto for Violin) in Bb Major, HWV 288

About the Ensemble

Collegium Musicum TCU is a student ensemble devoted to the historically informed performance of Baroque music. Tonight's program is performed on authentic replicas of Baroque instruments. The temperament used is an 18th century "well tempered" tuning system; pitch level is A=415, one half step lower than modern concert pitch.

We thank members of the applied music faculty, Elisabeth Adkins, Misha Galaganov, and Juliette Herlin for their support of the Collegium.
