TUTU PARTY FOR 15 ASPIRING BALLERINAS

TCU SCHOOL FOR CLASSICAL & CONTEMPORARY DANCE

TCU ballerinas costumed in tutus and tiaras will host up to 15 children for a ballerina tutu party in one of the beautiful dance studios in Erma Lowe Hall. This event promises to be a fun-filled hour of photo opportunities, creative movement, dance and music, costume dress-up games, and many smiles. Honoree will receive a tiara of flowers and guests will receive floral wrist corsages generously donated by Flowers on the Square. Party refreshments will be enjoyed by all young ballerinas.

Event must be scheduled at least three months in advance, be held between September 1 – April 30 and be coordinated with School for Classical & Contemporary Dance activities. Not available during TCU holiday closures or summer months.

'KNUCKLE UP' TCU SPORTS FANS!

For the first time ever, you and seven guests have the opportunity to enjoy an exclusive, behind-the-scenes tour of TCU Athletic facilities led by TCU Athletic Director Jeremiah Donati. You'll get a firsthand look at the weight room, training room, athletic dining room, new locker rooms (if not occupied by the athletes), and other athletic facilities. Your party of eight will then enjoy the ultimate dinner party at Grace, hosted by Jeremiah Donati and TCU Men's Basketball Head Coach Jamie Dixon. Also included in this memorable package are four tickets to a TCU men's basketball game with reserved parking and a meal at the Courtside Club and four tickets to see TCU baseball with reserved parking.

Dates must be mutually agreed upon between donors and the winning bidder.
